

ALISTER ABADEE

Admitted to the New South Wales Bar

27 February 2000

Areas of practice

Alister has a broad practice with a particular focus on professional liability claims and class actions involving investors and consumers.

He practices regularly in the Supreme Court of NSW and Federal Court and, as a senior junior counsel, often appears against senior counsel.

The principal areas in which Alister practices are:

- Professional liability
- Class actions for investors and consumers
- Corporations & financial services law: directors duties and insolvency
- Commercial and equity
- Commissions of inquiry

Further information regarding cases in which Alister has been involved within any of the above can be provided on request.

Professional activities

Alister is co-author of Professional Liability in Australia (3rd ed, 2016) and edited the 'Members' Rights and Remedies' section of the Australian Corporations Law (looseleaf service) from 2000-2011.

Since 2001, Alister has also been a Naval Reservist and member of the NSW Navy Legal Panel. In that capacity he has acted for defence members in disciplinary proceedings and commissions of inquiry.

From 2005 to 2009, Alister was a member of a NSW Bar Association Professional Conduct Committee.

Teaching position

Since 2015, Alister has been a casual lecturer at the University of Sydney's Foundations of Law course.

Alister has authored many other articles and presented at many seminars on topics related to his areas of practice.