

MARK BRABAZON SC

Called to the Bar

1984 (Qld), 1988 (NSW)

Appointed Senior Counsel

2008 (NSW)

Areas of Practice

Mark has a large practice is in Federal and State taxation. He assists clients at all stages from planning and advice, through investigation, audit and non-litigious dispute resolution, to taxation reviews and appeals and recovery litigation. His clients have included a wide range of taxpayers and revenue authorities. His work has been published in journals including Australian Tax Forum, Australian Tax Review and the Australian Law Journal.

Mark also has a broad practice in commercial law and equity, in public law (constitutional and administrative), and in professional regulation. He is recognised as a leading authority on legal costs as both an advocate and an advisor, and has written and lectured extensively on the subject. He is a member of the Costs Assessment Rules Committee and chairs the Costs and Fees Committee of the Bar Association.

Academic

BA LLM (Qld)

Mark is a doctoral candidate in the University of Sydney. His area of research is international trust taxation.

Other professional qualifications and appointments

Chair, Council of Law Reporting for New South Wales

Chartered Tax Adviser (Tax Institute)

Trust and Estate Practitioner (STEP)

Other languages spoken

German

Other interests

Fiscal policy, German language and culture, Church music, photography, Australian wine.