

ROD SMITH SC

Admitted to the New South Wales Bar

May 1985

Appointed as Senior Counsel

October 1998

Areas of Practice

Rod practises mainly in commercial law, including disputes involving trade practices, corporate law, insurance and equitable claims. He has been involved in many large corporate disputes and has conducted a number of lengthy trials.

The principal areas in which Rod practises are:

Insurance

Commercial Law

Competition & Consumer Law

Corporations Law

Equity & Trusts

Representative Proceedings

Further information regarding cases in which Rod has been involved within any of the above practice areas can be provided on request.